

CIGIE 2010 Organizing Committee

Invitation for China International Green Industry Expo 2010 (CIGIE 2010)

To Whom It May Concern,

The Organizing Committee of China International Green Industry Expo 2010 (CIGIE 2010) cordially invites you to attend the CIGIE 2010. The CIGIE 2010 will be held in Beijing Exhibition Center, from the 24th to 27th of November, 2010, initiated by the Chinese government. The event aims to enhance the communication and cooperation between China and the other important countries in areas pertaining to green industries and the green economy, jointly coping with the issue of global climate changes.

The CIGIE 2010 is China's largest and most important expo dealing with green industries and the green economy and is international, advanced, and contributes towards public interest to help spread general scientific knowledge. The CIGIE 2010 will be jointly hosted by the Ministry of Commerce of the P.R China, the CPC Publicity Department, the National Development and Reform Commission, the Ministry of Education, the Ministry of Science and Technology, the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology, the Ministry of Finance, the Ministry of Environmental Protection, the Ministry of Housing and Urban-Rural Development, the Ministry of Transport, the State Intellectual Property Office, and the Chinese Academy of Sciences.

The exhibition site for the CIGIE 2010 is 22000 m² and will be offered to the exhibitors free of charge by the Chinese government. The CIGIE 2010 will mainly display first-class companies, technologies, and products, as well as cutting-edge research results in the areas including clean energy, energy-conservation, emission-reduction, environmental protection, and low-carbon technologies. During the CIGIE 2010, China will hold many related workshops and forums including the China International Forum on the Green Industries and Green Economy 2010. Meanwhile, various events will also be held to offer business opportunities for the exhibitors, such as press conferences and business discussions. Chinese national leaders and ministers, as well as international politicians, top business executives, internationally renowned experts and scholars, will also be invited to attend the CIGIE 2010 and forums. International and domestic news media will be present to report on the CIGIE 2010 and its various activities as they occur.

As the biggest potential market of the world, China is investing heavily on green industries and the green economy. That being said, China will generate vast business opportunities for green industries companies. Given the remarkable achievements of your company in green technologies, the organizing committee of CIGIE 2010 cordially invites you to participate in the CIGIE 2010. Please contact any one of the contact persons below, and fill out the booth application form (Attachment) and return it by fax to the Organizing Committee's Executive Office of CIGIE 2010 and your contact person.

To ensure your exhibition contents meet with the objectives of the CIGIE 2010, the organizing committee will arrange to have enlisted businesses & their prospective exhibition assessed by specialists before deciding which businesses will receive permission to participate, what contents are to be exhibited, and the allocation of exhibition booths according to exhibition plans. The CIGIE 2010 Organizing Committee retains the right to interpret all activities in association with the CIGIE 2010. Inquiries are welcome at any time.
